

The screenshot shows the Wikio website interface. At the top left is the Wikio logo with the tagline "L'actu des blogs". To the right are navigation buttons for "Actualités", "Blogs", "Shopping", "Vidéos", and "Forums". Further right are links for "connexion" and "inscription". Below these are "Classement des blogs" and "Outils & Widgets". A search bar is located in the center. Below the search bar are links for "applications iPhone" and "Toute l'information en français". A secondary navigation bar includes "E-Blogs, revue européenne de blogs", "Apple", "Mondial de basket-ball", "Facebook", and "Twitter". The main content area features a section titled "applications iPhone" with a breadcrumb trail: "Wikio > Actualités > High-tech > Apple > iPhone > applications iPhone". The primary article is titled "Braderie de Lille 2010 l'application Bradkit pour iPhone 4 votre compagnon" and is attributed to "Presse du Net". The article text begins with "Pour ceux qui se déplaceront à la Braderie de Lille 2010, l'application pour iPhone 4 Bradkit est le[...]". Below the article are options to "commenter", "3 articles sur le sujet", and "hier". A "Recevez cette actu dans votre mail" section includes an email input field and an "OK" button, with category filters for "Loisirs", "Sport", "People", and "Podcast".
